Creekmore Masonic Lodge

What We Do:

In 2018, Creekmore Masonic Lodge raised and contributed over $13,000 to charitable and education causes in Oklahoma and our local community.

Community Involvement

We assisted three local families and several Masonic Widows at Christmas.

We assisted local families with medical and utility expenses.

We provided funds for the following local groups:

Bread of Life Ministries
Shop with a Cop
Madill City Library
Santa's Elves

On the state & national level the Lodge funded:

Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma
OETA
FFA Endowment

Support of Public Education

We provide college scholarships in the amount of $2000 to two graduating seniors at Madill High School. ($4000 total)

We recognized an outstanding teacher at Madill Public Schools as a Masonic Teacher of Today with a $200 honorarium.

We recognize six outstanding students at Madill Public Schools as Masonic Students of Today with a $200 scholarship each. ($1200 total)

We provide scholarships for two student athletes at the Madill Winter Classic.

We provide scholarships at the Marshall County Jr. Livestock Show.

Vizavance Oklahoma

Creekmore Masonic Lodge #74 assists Vizavance (formerly Prevent Blindness Oklahoma) in vision screening over 5000 public school students in the following schools: Madill Public Schools, Marietta Public Schools, and Turner Public Schools. We have also assisted other Masonic Lodges in screening at Kingston Public Schools and Tishomingo Public Schools. Over 20 percent of students screened are referred for treatment or to be fitted for eye glasses.

We have also assisted local families and individuals in obtaining eye glasses.
